

K-Love is a great service for my local community, serving the entire Denver metro area. Although it is a national station, it does provide much information about local events. Not having this station would be a detriment to the well-being of our community.